

Check your pew!

Do you see a young person who is

- intelligent
- healthy
- of strong character
- active in serving
- relates well to others
- loves the Lord and His church
- sincere about the Christian faith

You may have identified a future full-time church worker!

On Sunday, January 19, share that person's name with your pastor.

RSVP 2003

RSVP 2003 is a recruitment initiative of Lutheran Church–Canada which asks members of congregations to identify men and women whom they believe have the gifts and talents for church work vocations.
